This 3-bedroom, 2-bathroom bilevel offers a straightforward living space with updates over the years and a bright, open layout upstairs. The basement has a large family room area with a large bedroom and bathroom with huge tub. There's a detached garage at the back and plenty of rear parking, making it easy for daily routines or guests. Some updates have been made, but there's still potential for a personal touch. If you're searching for an affordable option with extra parking and a simple floor plan, this could be a fit.
