The lot and location truly set this property apart! Nestled on a large corner lot along a peaceful, quiet street, this welcoming bungalow offers fantastic curb appeal that invites you home every time. Inside, the main floor features sliding patio doors, a bright bay window nook, laminate and tile flooring throughout, a raised breakfast bar, and the convenience of main floor laundry. A private separate entrance leads to the basement, offering great flexibility for extended family, guests, or rental potential. Downstairs, you’ll find an additional bedroom, a 4-piece bathroom, a cozy nook, flex space, and a storage room – along with a freshly renovated basement kitchen (completed in 2024), providing a stylish and functional space ready for immediate use. The front yard is beautifully designed for curb appeal, while the backyard is set up for fun and relaxation, featuring a private patio area hidden behind the generous detached garage – ideal for summer gatherings or simply unwinding outdoors. With newer shingles and siding, this home is move-in ready and located close to schools, shopping, restaurants, and public transportation, making it a perfect fit for families and commuters alike.
