Two-storey character home on SE Hill, built in 1913. Features include some original hardwood floors, wide baseboards, high ceilings, and a front veranda. The upper floor offers three good size bedrooms and a full bathroom, while the main floor provides spacious living areas. Located on a quiet dead-end street within walking distance to parks, playgrounds, schools, shopping, and the downtown core. Home is in need of a lot of work and is a great project for a property flipper. The home is being sold as is, where is.
