Invest with confidence in this prime mixed-use property located in the center of Wainwright's bustling downtown. With a strong tenant in place on the main level, this building delivers immediate, reliable income and long-term stability. The storefront enjoys excellent visibility and steady pedestrian traffic, making it a sought-after location for businesses. Above the retail space, a renovated two-bedroom residential suite enhances the property's cash flow potential. Equipped with modern appliances and updated finishes, the suite offers flexible options—continuing to generate steady rental income or house an on-site manager/owner. This property combines historic charm with updated functionality, giving it strong appeal to tenants while preserving long-term value. Investors will appreciate the diversified income streams, central location, and low vacancy risk in a supportive, growing community. Seize this opportunity to add a proven, income-producing asset to your portfolio in one of Wainwright's most recognizable and desirable commercial properties.
