The finishing is beautiful, and the kitchen appliances are all stainless steel. The spacious feeling continues on as you walk through each of the three bedrooms and the two full bathrooms. It's the perfect home for families or anyone seeking comfortable living. The home has been placed on an ICF basement which is open and ready for your vision of its future development - whether you envision a family room, recreation room, or additional living space. You can even just leave it as is and let the kids "go wild down there".
