This well kept home is located in the established community of Abbeydale, close to schools, shopping, playgrounds, parks, and transit. It's a great family home with a functional bi-level layout. The main floor offers a spacious living room and dining area, while the kitchen, renovated a few years ago, features updated counters, cupboards, and appliances. Completing the main level are the primary bedroom, a second bedroom, and an updated four-piece bathroom. The lower level includes two additional bedrooms and a two-piece bathroom. The furnace and hot water tank have been replaced within the last few years, providing added peace of mind. There is a driveway for off-street parking, and the south-facing backyard offers a deck and mature trees for added privacy. This property is a great option for first-time buyers, those looking to downsize, or anyone seeking to add to their rental portfolio. Contact your REALTOR® today to arrange a private viewing.
