12.76 acres of land inside city limits with development right next door. Located just south of Veterans Blvd and east of Rge Rd 13 (Centre street). Several options for this property - build your dream home on a huge acreage within the city limits, start a home based business or several other options open with RR-4 zoning or hold as an investment as the city of Airdrie develops around it (residential development going to the north and south, civic use development immediately to the west and a planned community Centre to the east).
