This home is being sold with all furnishings and appliances included (some exceptions) This spacious 7 bedroom home has been home to various University Students looking for affordable housing. The bedrooms are generous in size and offer popular common areas such as kitchen, dining room and living room. There's a 3 pce bathroom on main level and a 4 pce on upper level. The upper level features 4 generous sized bedrooms. The primary bedroom offers spacious walk in closet and access to a cozy roof top patio. The basement offers another large room currently being used as a bedroom and features a dry bar and corner wood burning fireplace. The owner is currently living in at back of the property. You would never know the attached garage was ever there. The rear living space offers a bright kitchen and living room area with a cozy bedroom and family room in basement and a large 3 pce ensuite with soaker tub too. This property will be popular as the University is just minutes away. This home is close to down town and transit.
