2 bedroom home with single garage on a corner lot, in Neilburg SK. This property offers some equity growth for a handy-person to use as a fixer-upper. This property and anything in it is sold on an AS-IS basis, with no warranties or representations made or implied. Owner reports furnace and water heater are both non-working appliances at this time (no heat in home). This home is on one level, with only a cellar to house the utilities, so a renovation could prove easy, as it is really only one level. There is a single attached garage, and a double corner lot, offering a lot of room for outdoor activity or toys. AS-IS Schedule A must accompany all offers.
