Rare opportunity in Red Deer! This solid 1963 bungalow offers a functional layout with recent updates, including a new 4-piece bathroom in the fully developed basement. The basement also features a Rec room and 2 finished bedrooms, providing flexible space for guests or family. The home backs onto a treed reserve to the west, complete with walking trails, offering privacy and a peaceful, natural setting. The oversized 30' x 34' heated and insulated garage/shop is the ultimate feature—perfect for RV storage, large vehicles, trades, or serious hobby projects. With two 9' x 9' doors and an extra-high 12' door, this unique structure is truly one-of-a-kind in the area. This rare combination of comfortable living space and an exceptional garage/shop makes this property a standout in the Red Deer market—an opportunity that doesn't come along often.
