An exceptional land offering located minutes west of Okotoks and southwest of Calgary. Ideally situated within the newly established Olivaster Ridge subdivision, with the private inner access road scheduled for paving this spring. The property is fully enclosed with quality rail fencing and enjoys sweeping, beautiful mountain views. A thoughtfully positioned building site is in place, while a registered restrictive covenant ensures the long-term integrity and value of the subdivision. Power and gas services will be installed to the property line. Please note: a municipal address has not yet been assigned by Foothills County.
