Backing directly onto a protected nature reserve and expansive green space, the property enjoys rare privacy, serene views, and an authentic connection to nature. Discovery Ridge is renowned for its extensive network of pathways, parks, and preserved green spaces, creating a peaceful, community-focused environment unlike anywhere else in the city. With Griffith Woods Park just minutes away, decorative acorn-style street lighting, and minimal traffic, the setting is quiet, established, and undeniably beautiful. Inside, the home immediately impresses with hardwood flooring throughout the main and upper levels, with carpet found only on the staircase—a detail that reinforces the home’s clean, elevated finish. Both the main floor and upper level feature 9-foot ceilings, a rare and highly desirable combination that gives the home a noticeably larger, more open, and more luxurious feel throughout. The open-concept main floor is anchored by a striking open-to-above staircase and warmed by a convenient gas fireplace in the living room, creating a welcoming focal point for both everyday living and entertaining. Natural light flows effortlessly through the main living spaces, enhancing the home’s sense of volume and architectural presence. The main floor is also pre-wired with rough-ins for ceiling speakers, allowing for a seamless future audio setup. This residence was thoughtfully enhanced with multiple builder-designed extensions completed at the original design stage, including an expanded front entry, cantilevered front closet, entertainment area extension, and a rear bay window.

addition—features that elevate both functionality and scale while maintaining architectural cohesion. Upstairs, four well-proportioned bedrooms are highlighted by a serene primary retreat with oversized windows framing uninterrupted green space views. The bathrooms are finished with quartz engineered stone countertops and feature a practical Jack & Jill layout, balancing durability, elegance, and everyday functionality. The basement is positioned for future development with a bathroom rough-in and fireplace gas line already in place. A double attached garage adds everyday convenience and completes this exceptional offering. This is a rare opportunity to own a home where design integrity, ceiling height, warmth, and natural beauty converge—set within one of Calgary’s most quietly luxurious neighbourhoods.
