This spacious home offers a great opportunity for first-time buyers and investors alike, set on a quiet 50 ft x 163 ft lot in the welcoming community of Edgerton. Ideally located just steps from a community playground, with an open field behind, this property offers both privacy and a family-friendly setting. Inside, the home offers approximately 1,665 sq. ft. of living space, thanks to two thoughtful additions. The bright and spacious kitchen easily accommodates a breakfast table and flows into a large dining area, making it ideal for everyday living and entertaining. From there, step into the inviting sunken family room, a cozy space to relax and unwind. The layout is completed by four bedrooms, two bathrooms, and a separate laundry room, offering flexibility for families, guests, or rental potential. Recent updates include laminate flooring, adding a fresh and functional feel throughout. A spacious entry provides ample room for storage or a practical utility/workspace. The home features a single detached garage with rear alley access, along with a convenient front parking pad. The tidy, partially secluded yard creates a comfortable outdoor space—perfect for enjoying warm summer evenings near the main entry. A solid home in a peaceful location with room to grow—this property is well worth a look.
