WOW what a place! I call this home the "Comfy Blanket" because as soon as you step in the front door you are greeted with such a warm great feeling. There is a wood burning fire place, two living rooms, a beautiful kitchen, 3 pane windows, developed basement (including a pool table) and an amazingly large back yard. This home has it all! Owned by a Mechanical Engineer and his family so you know you're getting nothing but the best quality in appliances, hot water tank and furnace. Come see it for your self as it's not going to last long. Book your appointment today!
