Ideally positioned in the heart of Crown Park, the residence features a southwest-facing balcony overlooking the central park and is located just minutes from downtown Calgary - combining maintenance-free living with an inner-city lifestyle. The main living space is beautifully designed for everyday comfort and effortless entertaining. A timeless white kitchen anchors the home, opening seamlessly to the living and dining areas while a full wall of southwest-facing windows fills the space with natural light. The kitchen showcases quartz countertops, a warm wood accent island, and a premium built-in appliance package including a gas cooktop and built-in oven. The expansive living room features a striking floor-to-ceiling tiled fireplace and comfortably accommodates gatherings with ample seating space for 6+ people, while the generous dining area easily hosts a table for eight - perfect for family dinners and entertaining. Privately positioned at one end of the home, the primary retreat is thoughtfully separated from the secondary bedrooms by the laundry area, enhancing privacy. The suite includes a large walk-in closet and a spa-inspired ensuite with dual vanities and a walk-in shower with 10mm glass surround. Two additional bedrooms offer flexible use as guest space, a home office, or media room and are served by a full bathroom. A spacious laundry room with additional cabinetry and folding counter adds everyday convenience. Outdoor living is equally impressive with an approximately 26' x 8' covered southwest-facing balcony overlooking the park and complete with a gas line, hose bib, and A/C rough-in - maximizing sunlight year-round both inside and out! The lower level provides access to the oversized private double attached garage along with two large storage areas, offering the extra space rarely found in bungalow-style living. Located within Calgary's newest inner-city community, this brand-new home delivers a true lock-and-leave lifestyle and includes full builder warranty plus Alberta New Home Warranty.
