Your own private Bird sanctuary half way between Lac La Biche and Plamondon. This is a rare piece offered on the market and has full services including water and sewer, gas and power. With nearly 37 acres you have room for a small hobby farm with horses or a cow or two, chickens, whatever you like. There is a private building sight in the middle of the small spruce forest near the lake that would make a great spot for a home or cabin. Theres a large open area for the horses, or perhaps a small orchard..... the potential is endless.
